Visioning and Values

Core Values

A community’s values are deeply held and widely shared beliefs that serve as building blocks for the community’s vision and shape how decisions are made.

- They can evolve over generations but are durable and have a lasting impact.
- Once identified, these values and their complementary planning principles will form a decision-making framework for the new plan.

Who Are We Now?

Please list one-word descriptions that describes the City of La Porte over the last 25 years. Please ask yourself...

01. What values have been at the core of the community over the past generation?
02. Who have we been as a community in recent decades?
03. Write your one-word descriptions on a sticky note and place it in the comment box. If your word is already up there, place a dot on the sticky note.
